

Could it be any hotter than that?!

This year again, Pierre's will celebrate Bastille Day on Saturday July 17th. I know, it should be on July 14th, but we want to have a maximum exposure when we will shop a few heads...

We will start with the French soccer team that went on strike during the World Cup and covered themselves with shame. What part of their body were they thinking with anyway?!

We will all be dressed accordingly with costume d'epoque.

And you are welcome to join us, and be dressed as well for the occasion.

Jody Carlson's trio is every Tuesday night from 7 pm until 10 pm.

Sunday Jazz also from 7pm until 10pm
